

This 3-part video series can be accessed through our Girl Scouts Why Not YouTube Channel (individual video series links below). The videos share the many pro-life concerns about Girl Scouts USA and features members from three former Girl Scout families. Each video has an accompanying video documentation guide, which provides supporting verifiable evidence that is presented in the video series.

Part 1: Features Madelyn, a former Girl Scout teen from Georgia. Madelyn explores the problematic curriculum that exposes girls to abortion rights advocacy groups and role models. She also shows how the official GS blog links girls to resources with graphic explicit sexual content.

Part 1 video

Part 1 documentation guide (56 pages)

Part 2: Features Ann, a mom of a former fourth-generation Girl Scout from Missouri. Ann focuses on GSUSA's relationships that conflict with the prolife position including the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), the international scouting organization of which GSUSA is a founder and primary funder. Ann explores GSUSA's other concerning relationships as well.

Part 2 video

Part 2 documentation guide (45 pages)

Part 3: Features Mickie, a dad of a former Girl Scout and husband of a former Girl Scout leader from Florida. Mickie provides a father's perspective on the concerning Girl Scout issues and explains how each of us can share the truth and protect girls from the Girl Scouts' harmful curriculum and relationships.

Part 3 video

Part 3 documentation guide (6 pages)